- 2.) Log in to your account, then look for the green banner at the top of your dashboard with a link to finish the verification process.

How does Manna UBI work?

Manna is distributed weekly as a basic income to all verified users on an ongoing basis. The amount distributed is equal to 3.5% of the circulating money supply per year.

How much will I receive each week?

The amount each user receives is based on the number of verified recipients and the current circulating supply. So 0.067% (3.5%/ 52 weeks) of the circulating supply is evenly distributed amongst all verified recipients each week.

For instance, if there are 50,000 verified users and a circulating supply of 500 Million Manna, then each user would receive 6.73 Manna that week in base UBI.

How does the referral bonus program work?

In order to promote user growth, Manna has created a referral bonus program. You can participate in this program by logging into your account and copying the referral link on your dashboard. Simply share this link and you will receive bonus Manna for anyone who signs up using your referral link and is approved for UBI.

Important: You will only receive the bonus Manna for those you have referred that have been verified and approved.

Current Bonus Structure:

Each Referral: 100% base UBI Bonus for 52 Weeks (1 Year)

Each Referee: 50% base UBI Bonus for 52 Weeks (1 Year)

Example: You refer 10 people and all of them are approved for Manna basic income. The UBI for that week equals 10 Manna. You receive the 10 Manna, plus 100 Bonus Manna.

Note: The current referral program is temporary and will likely change over time. If you sign people up after the referral program has been updated, your new referral bonuses will be based on the new bonus structure.

How do I spend Manna?

You can send Manna to other Mannabase users, or out of your Mannabase account to a desktop wallet (either your own or somebody else's), or to exchanges where you can sell it for other cryptocurrencies like Bitcoin. From there, you can sell your Bitcoin for your native fiat currency like the US dollar.

Longer term, we plan to improve the usability of Manna through a number of solutions:

- 1.) Partnering with businesses to directly accept Manna as payment.
- 2.) Partnering with digital currency debit card companies to allow you to store Manna in a debit card, then instantly spend it even at businesses that do not accept Manna or digital currency. They just would need to accept major credit cards like Visa. (Companies like Tenx and Monaco are currently developing this solution.)
- 3.) Partnering with websites where you can buy gift cards to most major establishments with your Manna.
- 4.) Utilize our targeted giving features to give Manna to charities, artists/creators, and people in need.

I’m having issues with phone verification:

We’re sorry to hear that you were unable to complete the application process for Manna Universal Basic Income because of issues with verifying your mobile phone number.

Our technology is unable to process and verify numbers from some mobile phone carriers at this time. We are looking into solutions for how we can support more users to become verified for Manna UBI using phone verification.

Meanwhile, if you would like to be verified within 1-2 weeks, please send a scan or image of your government-issued photo ID, such as a driver’s license or passport, to verify@mannabase.com. Also include the e-mail associated with your account.

Thank you for your patience as we work on improving our user verification system.

Why haven’t I received Manna yet?

Manna Universal Basic Income is distributed once per week, and each recipient who is approved before the weekly distribution occurs will receive an equal share of the manna distributed that week as UBI, plus referral bonuses. If you were not approved before this week’s distribution, you may be approved for the next week’s distribution, after our staff reviews your application.

Please note, some misinformation has been spread on social media about how many coins each person receives in our distributions. For example, some people have promoted Manna by incorrectly saying that everyone receives 500 manna per week or a 500 manna signup bonus. That is not how our program works, and we are doing what we can to prevent such confusion in the future.

Why wasn't my account approved/ still pending?

We're sorry that your application for Manna Universal Basic Income could not be automatically approved. Our website uses algorithms to detect applications that may require manual review by Mannabase staff. The purpose of this is to prevent duplicate applications by the same person.

Your application for Manna UBI is in the queue for review and potentially approval. Because of the large number of applications that are pending review, please expect to wait 1 to 2 weeks for your application to be processed. Thank you for your patience.

If your application is still pending after 2 weeks, please submit send a scan or image of your government-issued photo ID, such as a driver's license or passport, to verify@mannabase.com. Also include the e-mail associated with your account.

Why are my referrals not showing correctly?

This is because only referrals that have created an account show up on your dashboard. Your other referrals only completed step one of providing their email. We are working on making the sign-up process simpler and more straightforward so that more referred individuals complete the full process. If you believe this is not the case, please contact support.
